

SEAT BELTS

In accordance with law, buses are equipped with seat belts for all riders. Students are urged to wear such seat belts. It is not the obligation of the individual bus driver to make sure each student is wearing such belts. The individual student will make that judgment.