

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION

The Board of Education recognizes its responsibility to provide optional programs of study for those who desire a career in a vocational trade. The decision as to whether the district provides the program or the program is contracted for will be based on:

1. The needs of the student.
2. The efficiency with which the program can be provided.