

Compensation For Substitute Teachers on Days of Delayed Opening or Early Dismissal

1. Substitute teachers' full day compensation is set forth at the annual Board of Education Reorganizational Meeting in July.
2. In the event of a delay or early dismissal, the certified substitute teacher shall receive full compensation.
3. The non-certified substitute teacher shall receive payment on an hourly basis. The following are some examples of the procedure:
 - a. In the event of a delay or early dismissal of one hour, the non-certified substitute teacher shall be paid $\frac{6}{7}$ of the appropriate daily compensation;
 - b. In the event of a delay or early dismissal of two hours, the non-certified substitute teacher shall be paid $\frac{5}{7}$ of the appropriate compensation;
 - c. And in the event of a complete half-day early dismissal, the compensation shall be for three and one-half hours.
