

INPUT TO POLICY DEVELOPMENT

In the development of policies, the Board charges the Superintendent, where appropriate, to review and gain input from those whom the policy will ultimately affect. Documentation of the input shall be included with the draft policy when presented to the Board for initial review. The final adoption of any policy rests with the Board of Education.